WATERPOLO. Coaches Report
GBR 7- France 11  GBR 5 – Czech Republic 1  GBR 9 – Italy 12 This weekend continued to show the progress the women’s team is making. With 9 players under 20, plus a number of players only returning from overseas a few days before heading off, this tournament was always going to be a learning experience. France: Started great, had the lead at half time but lost our way in 3rd quarter, managed to regroup in 4th. Czech: Comprehensive victory, revenge for loss in B’s last year, they were never in the game. Italy (Olympic champions): Probably not their very strongest team, though they did have several international veterans. At 9-8 in the 4th, we missed an easy opportunity; they score the other end...game over...though it could have been all so different!! Overall, another big step in the right direction, the team has played very few games but have been training very hard, this is reflected in the improved results.
